The Importance of Being Earnest, Coronado Playhouse ♦ Sunday, August 8, 2010

Bus leaves at 1:00pm*

"The truth is rarely pure and never simple." The Importance of Being Earnest (A Trivial Comedy for Serious People) is probably Oscar Wilde's most famous, and certainly his most quoted play. This delightful comedy of manners is a brazen social satire on the late Victorian ruling classes' obsession with name and status. At a time in England when prudery and strict moral conduct were enforced and it was deemed improper for a lady's ankle to be so much as even glimpsed, and when all people knew their place and position and emotions weren't to be seen nor heard, Oscar Wilde emerged a "celebrity." Silly to the extreme, brilliantly witty and perfectly constructed, Wilde's masterpiece continues to entertain, to tickle your funny bone, and raise an eyebrow. Pay by July 23, 2010. We will return at approximately 5:30pm*. $21.

Beautiful Follies girls and tap-dancing guys help to create show business magic in a show that features some of the most unforgettable Gershwin songs including "Someone to Watch Over Me," "Embraceable You," "I've Got Rhythm," "Can't Be Bothered Now," "Shall We Dance" and many more.
