MPP is an inhumane policy that forces asylum seekers from Spanish-speaking countries to return to Mexico while their case is decided in U.S. immigration courts, denying them access to critical legal aid.

THE ROUTE NORTH

Many of the migrants requesting asylum at the U.S. border have traveled from their home countries and across most of Mexico.

And it's happening all along our Southern border

@jfs_sd is one of a few organizations providing life-saving legal representation to individuals and families impacted by MPP

They've helped hundreds of asylum seekers with Know Your Rights workshops, free legal counsel, and pro bono representation in court

I went to visit with @thisisabouthumanity and it's what they do is miraculous
